2. Sign in/Welcome:

3. Police Report:

- a. Things continue to be very quiet in Beat 2. Re: the break-in Officer Sloan's home, very little has been recovered, maybe a couple of badges, but not his gun.
- b. There have been kids wandering late hours around the McLaren area, and so he's going to request more patrolling.
- c. David asked if there was anything for the newsletter. Officer Becze suggested the slogan, lock it, hide it, keep it for car owners. This is a way protecting valuables that have to be left in the car for one reason or another.
- d. There has been an increase in "door kicks" in some of the other beats, so we need to be aware in case it returns to our beat.

4. Minutes of previous meeting: Approved.

5. Treasurer's report: None

6. RCONA report:

- e. "Princess Elsa" will be at the showing of Frozen at Elliot Park this Saturday, the 28th.
- f. The July 4th Fun Run will be at Royer Park from 7-9 AM. Vicki volunteered to help.
- g. July 12th is our time to help with the Movie in the Park at Eich Middle School. Volunteers are needed. Contact Jim.

7. Library Report: None

8. Old Business:

- a. National Night Out: No Report

- b. 2014 Garage Sale Thank You Letters?: Geoff reported that he had delivered thank you notes to all the donors in the Rocky Ridge Center. The two individuals who donated did not receive notes because Geoff didn't have contact information for them.
- c. Updates on Park burn-area irrigation, restoration: Vicki will contact Bryan about coming to a board meeting in the Fall.
- d. Library Statistic Letter: Geoff reminded the board that Scott had discovered he had a copy of the original letter and had sent it on to the city.
- e. Idea: Kiosk for Maidu Park and the West Colonial Open Space: No Report
- f. Neighborhood Blood Drive: Geoff hadn't had an opportunity to follow up but it is still on his list of "to does."

9. New Business:

- a. Another Doggie Bag station at Maidu?: Jim noted there are no stations in side the park. David suggested the reason may be that dogs are not to be inside these areas.

We were reminded the city removed two stations. The board believes it may be wise to put them back. This is something we need to pursue. We might be open to offering the city paying for one if it would pay for the other. David will follow-up with Jeff (?) at the city. Jim will talk to the individual in the Senior Center who has oversight of Maidu Park.
