What We Learned from Park Clean-up Event

by Scott Reid

The morning of the Park Clean-up dawned with sunny skies, but clouds were rolling in from the west. It rained at 8:30 am, then again at 10:20 am, with winds picking up. The event was, therefore, cancelled.

We did some things right. The Association Board had decided the night before to cancel the event based on weather forecasts. No money was spent on food or other perishables for the picnic. On the morning of the event, we posted the cancellation on line.

However, there are more things we could have done. Here are a couple of main ones:

We had suspected we might need to cancel the event as early as Thursday that week, and we should have updated our web site and Facebook pages with the fact we were considering cancellation. We should have provided information on where and when to look for updates.

In the future, we need to select a rain date for outdoor activities when that is appropriate. In other words, we could have selected an alternate date for the event "in case of bad weather."

This is the first time we've cancelled one of our outdoor events, so it became its own chance to learn. Even in a drought year your parade can be rained on, so it's good to be prepared!

The next meeting of the Maidu Neighborhood Association will be held on Tuesday, November 18, at 7 pm at Sargeant School, 1200 Ridgecrest. We meet in the Activity Room which is toward the back of the school. Enter off N. Cirby. Our meetings give you a chance to get to know your neighbors and hear what's happening in the neighborhood. A Roseville Police Officer gives a crime report at each meeting.

Crime Corner

by David Allen

October was a tragic month for law enforcement officers in our area. The killing of Sacramento County Sheriff's Deputy Danny Oliver and Placer County Sheriff's Detective Michael David Davis Jr. were stark reminders of the dangers involved in keeping citizens safe. Our hearts and prayers go out to the families, friends and co-workers impacted by this violence.

If you followed the news that day, you know that many schools were locked down and roads blocked. When emergencies such as these occur, it's critical that impacted citizens be alerted ASAP if for no other reason than to stay away from the impacted areas. To improve how such alerts are communicated in Roseville, the City has launched Alert Roseville.

Alert Roseville is a an emergency notification system to which you subscribe. You control which types of alerts you want to receive, what impacted locations should trigger an alert (e.g. home, work, school, Uncle Ed's house, etc.) and how you want to be contacted, be it by phone, email, text or other option. It's a free service, but you must register on the City of Roseville web site. Search the Internet or the City's website (www.roseville.ca.us) for "Alert Roseville" and register today.

On the crime prevention front, our neighborhood officers shared important tips at a recent Maidu Neighborhood Association meeting. It's the holiday shopping season, so criminals will be on the lookout for an easy grab. Don't leave any valuables in your car when you go shopping. Better yet, leave them at home. If you must leave them in the car, hide them out of site, preferably in the trunk, BEFORE you arrive at your shopping destination. Carry your purchases with you rather than storing them in the car. If you have too many to carry, take them home.

With on-line shopping becoming more prevalent, thieves like to grab packages left at the front door. If you can't be home when the brown-suited Santa drops off your gift for Aunt Martha, ask a neighbor to pick it up. Another alternative is to use one of the delivery services provided by many of the major delivery companies. Some offer services such as hold for pick-up at a nearby shipping center, reschedule a delivery to a time when you will be home or deliver to an alternate address. Learn more and sign up at the carrier's web sites.

Have a safe holiday season!

The 25th Annual Holiday Craft Fair will be held on December 6 at the Maidu Community Center and Maidu Library at 1550 Maidu Drive. Parking and admission are free. The times for the event are 9 am until 3 pm.
