November 2015

Neighborhood Santa Comes to Maidu by Scott Reid

Are your kids looking forward to seeing Santa? Then mark your calendar for Tuesday, December 8, and come to Willard Dietrich Park at 6 pm. Santa will be riding by as part of a parade and Santa's helpers will be handing out candy along the route. Look for the luminaries lighting up the walkways at Willard Dietrich Park, corner of N. Cirby and Stoney Point.

The City of Roseville has arranged for Santa's visit and will supply the vehicles used for the parade. The Maidu Neighborhood Association will be preparing for the seasonal visit. We will supply hot chocolate, hot cider and cookies, and we may even do some caroling as we wait.

Santa's route will take him to several neighborhoods that evening so we won't know exactly when he will arrive, but we expect him to arrive before 7 pm. He will come down Stoney Point Way, then take a right on North Cirby Way at the corner of the park and proceed along that side of the park toward Sargeant School.

Santa used to do these neighborhood visits every year, but the City cut back during the Recession. They restarted the neighborhood visits last year and this year they added our neighborhood to the parade route. In years past, these events have been fun for everyone who attended. We hope to see you at Willard Dietrich Park on December 8!

NOTE the Change in Meeting Date for November: Our Maidu Neighborhood Association Meeting will be held on the 3rd Tuesday in November because the school will be closed the week of the 4th Tuesday for Thanksgiving holiday. Mark your calendar to attend our November meeting on November 17. It's a chance to meet your neighbors and ask questions of a Police Officer.

Make The Call

by David Allen

There are 84 police officers that protect our city of 130,000 residents. They do a great job, but we know they can't be everywhere. Let's give them a hand. If you see something that they don't, make the call. Dial 774-5000, the Roseville Police non-emergency number.

This is the request of one of our neighborhood police officers, Nick Gaines. Officer Gaines told us at our last neighborhood meeting that the increasing burglary rate can be turned around if Roseville residents alert the police when they see something amiss. Still on the top of their list is garage doors left open, an easy hit for burglars. If you're not comfortable knocking on your neighbor's door to let them know, call 774-5000. The police will be glad to let them know. If there is a solicitor working our neighborhood without a city-issued permit, dial 774-5000. If something just doesn't look or feel right, call 774-5000.

Let's give the police a helping hand so they can keep the bad guys at bay.

Maidu Park Gets the “Once-Over” by a Team of Neighbors

by Scott Reid

On Saturday, October 24, we had 23 neighbors and friends participating in the Maidu Neighborhood Association’s Annual Park Clean-up. From the initial meeting place, the group fanned out across the Park’s undeveloped areas to pick up trash.

After a couple of hours exploring and retrieving what they found that didn’t belong, everyone went back to the pavilion and enjoyed a picnic lunch. During the meal, judges reviewed the trash brought back for the most unusual and interesting items. There were three most unusual/interesting items that won prizes for the individual collector: an electric guitar and case, an empty flask, and a baseball that looked like a big bite had been taken out of it. The people who retrieved these three items each received a $10 gift card.

Four members of the Roseville Better Gardens Club were among the participants again this year. We also saw new faces who were participating for the first time and others who have helped out before. We hope to see you again next year. We thank you all for a clean-up that broadcasts the message, “Don’t trash our neighborhood.”
